THE CITY FINANCES.

Important Statement of the Condition of the Treasury by Deputy Controller Green—A Deficit of Eighteen Millions of Dollars to be Made up Before Jan. 15 Next.

Mr. ANDREW H. GREEN, the Deputy Controller, in response to a request from Mr. Wm. H. BOOTH, Chairman of the Committee of Citizens, has prepared a statement of the condition of the Finance Department, its wants and resources, and an estimate of the payments required to be made for the last quarter of the present year. According to this exhibit, which is prepared from the best data at hand in the Controller's office, over $18,000,000 more be expended before Jan. 15 next. There can be no doubt that that expenditure would be readily provided for, if the thieves were no longer at the head of the City Government. While they remain in the places of power and trust, the best interests of all classes—the working men equally with the tax-payers—are suffering. This thing cannot last much longer. The correspondence alluded to is as follows:

NEW-YORK, Sept. 27, 1871.

Andrew H. Green, Esq., Deputy Controller:

DEAR SIR: So much anxiety exists in the public mind in regard to the expenditures of your Department for the last Quarter of this year, that, in behalf of the citizens, I beg to ask you to present, at once, the best estimate you are able to prepare of the requirements of the Finance Department, its wants and resources, to close this year's business.

This statement is especially desirable, in view of the confirming statements in the public prints in reference to the debt and requirements of the City.

I am, very respectfully, WM. A. BOOTH, Chairman of Committee of Citizens.

CITY OF NEW-YORK, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, CONTROLLER'S OFFICE, Sept. 28, 1871.

WM. A. BOOTH, Esq., Chairman of Committee of Citizens:

DEAR SIR: Your favor of 27th inst. has been received, requiring from this Department, in behalf of the citizens, "the best estimate you are able to prepare of the expenditures of the Finance Department, its wants and resources, to close this year's business."

Complying with your request, I submit a statement made up in this Department, from which I am led to believe the needs of the Treasury of the City, up to Jan. 1, 1872, will be found as therein shown.

There are no data in this office from which to arrive with accuracy at the amount of the indebtedness likely to exist at the end of the year in several of the Departments, nor for the expenditures of other Departments in excess of the amounts appropriated to them respectively.

In this statement the sum of $4,700,000 is included for authorized expenses, in excess of the several appropriations for the balance of the year.

Very respectfully, ANDREW H. GREEN, Deputy Controller.

The Committee of Seventy yesterday received the services of Ex-Judge GEORGE C. BARRETT as associate counsel with Messrs. WHEELER H. PECKHAM, FRANCIS C. BARLOW, and A. R. LAWRENCE in prosecuting the legal proceedings to be taken with a view to reform in Municipal affairs. Judge BARRETT hesitated a long time before accepting, and only consented to serve after urgent and repeated solicitations were made, and with the express stipulation that active measures be at once taken, and efforts brought to a crisis by the commencement of suits against the thieves for the recovery of the funds they have stolen from the people. In pursuance of this, Ex-Judge BARRETT, as counsel for Hon. WILLIAM F. HAVEMEYER, yesterday entered suit against several of the thieves who, with the Board of Supervisors, have plundered the City Treasury. These defendants will be served this morning, Mr. HAVEMEYER appearing as plaintiff in all the suits for the recovery of the stolen treasure. Mr. HAVEMEYER suing as a tax-payer, and on behalf of the tax-payers of the City and County of New-York. An order will be issued today for the examination of the defendants by Judge BARNARD.

Paying the Laborers.

The Clerk of Arrears, Mr. CADY, on Wednesday paid about 700 of the Croton Aqueduct laborers employed on the works corner of Ninth-avenue and Ninety-first street and Ninth-avenue and One Hundred and Thirteenth street. Yesterday he paid nearly 800 of them. There are about 1,600 in all to be settled with, their average wages being $2 50 each per day. The banks that have advanced money to discharge the City's liabilities are as follows: Metropolitan, Gallatin, National Park, Third, Fourth and Tenth Nationals, Mechanics', City, Broadway, Commonwealth, and Chemical.

Printing for the Finance Department.

Since the organization of the New-York Printing Company that establishment has monopolized the whole of the printing for the City and County Departments, charging its own price therefor, and preventing any other establishments from competing with it. Mr. GREEN has determined to put a stop to this, so far as it lies in his power to do so, by giving the printing for the Finance Department to those establishments that will do it the best and cheapest. In answer to a letter from the Journeymen Printers' Co-operative Association, received yesterday, asking that a portion of the public printing be given to them, Mr. GREEN replied that he would hereafter give the Association a fair share of all such work required by the Finance Department.

Funds Required by the Department of Docks.

At the meeting of the Commissioners of Public Docks yesterday the dead-lock in the City Government was spoken of in a conversation with one of the Commissioners, who said that the Department had not as yet suffered any great inconvenience from Judge BARNARD's injunctions, although, in order to carry on its operations, it would soon want the $600,000, for which it had already made a requisition on the Controller. He mentioned that Judge BARNARD had told him that he did not think his injunction affected the Department, and that when he issued it he was of the impression that the Dock Commissioners could settle their own bonds. The Commissioners declared that the injunction would probably be dissolved soon so far as it concerned the Board, which would in the meantime institute what money it had and not retain its officers if the fund gave out.

The Two Committees.

The Committee of Seventy will hereafter meets in the rooms, corner of Twenty-second-street and Broadway, this location being more convenient for afternoon and evening meetings than the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. According to the present intention of the Committee, the next meeting will take place on the 2d of October, though it is possible that a special meeting may be called before that date. It is likely that at the next meeting a Committee will be appointed to wait on the Mayor, and ask for a copy of the lists of Inspector of Elections, in order that the names may be scrutinized.

The Citizens' Investigating Committee did not meet yesterday, and no announcement of their intention to hold another general meeting was made. The Aldermanic members of the Committee hold aloof, and no intercourse between them and the citizens has taken place recently.

Commissioners of the Sinking Fund.

A meeting of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund will be held today, at which, as announced, Mr. CONNOLLY will be present, and not Mr. GREEN.

Court Attendance—Proposed Reduction of Their Numbers—A Conference of the Judges to be Held.

Deputy Controller GREEN upon his accession to office instituted immediate investigation into the number and character of those persons whose names appear on the pay-rolls of the different bureaus of the City and County Governments, among which the attendants upon the several Courts received his attention. The number of officers connected with each Court is as follows: Supreme Court, 65; Superior Court, 47; Court of Common Pleas, 36; Marine Court, 31; General Sessions, 33. In order to ascertain from the most trustworthy source whether so large a number of officers is actually necessary, Mr. GREEN addressed a communication to each of the presiding Judges of the Courts above named, asking them to transmit to him such information on this subject as they could to enable him to determine what portion of the force now employed may be dispensed with without prejudice to the business of the Courts. Replies to this communication have been received from Judge INGRAHAM, of the Supreme Court; Justice BARBOUR, of the Superior Court; Judge DALY, of the Court of Common Pleas; Recorder HACKETT and City Judge REDFORD, of the Court of General Sessions, in which they generally concur with Deputy Controller GREEN in regard to the propriety of holding a conference with a view of ascertaining how far the number of attendants in each Court can be consistently reduced.

The Broome-Street Widening Job.

The property-owners assessed for the widening of Broome-street have beaten to quarters, and promise a sturdy resistance to a characteristic Tammany swindle. Six months ago they would have congratulated each other on their escape with the payment of $74,000, but since the collapse of the "City Government" they have gathered courage, and now they propose to fight the matter to a satisfactory conclusion.

The exorbitant assessments are put upon a few persons for the widening of Broome-street on the south side from the corner of South Fifth-avenue 125 feet east, for which an assessment of $66,000 was levied on lots fronting on the north and south sides of Broome-street, from Broadway to Varick-street. The owners opposed the confirmation of the report of the Commissioners, and petitioned Judge CARDOZO against the rank injustice it did them. They showed that Laurens-street, the thoroughfare benefited by the proposed "improvement" had not been assessed at all, and that the whole burden fell on the lots fronting on Broome-street. They also contended that the assessment was outrageously large, and pointed, as an example, to one item of $24,000 charged for "expenses." Judge CARDOZO promised them relief, and, without actually deciding the matter, indicated an intention of reducing the "expenses" one-half, and compelling the City to assume $12,000 of the balance. This would leave $30,000 (a deduction of forty per cent.) to be levied upon the owners—unjust, but more acceptable to them than the original assessment. Whether or not the assessment would be more evenly distributed, they did not know, but hoped for the best.

The documents in the Controller's office now show the assessment to be $74,000, $12,000 of which is to be saddled on the City, and $12,000 of which is allowed on the "expenses" account. The distribution was left unaltered, and $62,000 is reduction of eight per cent. instead of forty), is now levied on a few lots.

The property taken consists of six court-yards, each 20 by 11 feet. For these the Commissioners allowed $37,000, or nearly $6,000 each, thereby betraying a lamentable ignorance of the value of real estate, not warranted by some of the operations of the Ring; for three of the lots, from the front of which three of these 20,000 court-yards were taken, sold on the 19th of September for an aggregate of $61,000; and as they are 25 or 30 feet deep, their Ring valuation would be $10,000 each.

These facts opened the eyes of the groaning owners to passing events, and an investigation developed the further intelligence that the assessment on some of the lots had been reduced thirty-three per cent., which the irreverential attribute to the facility with which the Commissioners can be approached with anything except complaints. The lots of the owners so favored are the four lying west of the northwest corner of Broome and Wooster. Originally they were assessed for $7,000 each, which was subsequently reduced to $6,000. The reasons assigned by owners for the assessment only of lots fronting on the street is, that LORILLARD and ENO, two large landholders, own on Broome-street and for a long way back on each side of the street, and that it was to avoid mulcting them too heavily that such narrow strips were levied on.

The owners have now risen, and are combining to defeat the proposed encroachment. They will organize this week, and call a meeting to confer upon a course of conduct calculated to expose and enjoin the small but iniquitous ring of Commissioners.

Seeking the Intercession of the Governor.

Gen. DIX, Judge EMOTT, WILLIAM C. BARRETT, R. B. ROOSEVELT, J. WHEELER, Ex-Gov. SALOMON, the Subcommittee appointed by the Committee of Seventy to wait upon the Governor to solicit his co-operation, met last night at No. 109 Fifth-avenue, the residence of Judge PIERREPONT, the Chairman of the Committee, and transacted very important business, the nature of which cannot at present be disclosed.

THE EFFORT TO CREATE A RIOT.

The Attempt to Excite a Mob—Its Lessons.

From the Springfield Republican, Sept. 28.

Judge BARNARD, we are told, has modified his injunction so as to enable Mr. GREEN to raise money for the payment of the City laborers at New-York. One thing is certain. The Judge has not acted any too soon if he was to act at all. Threats of a broad riot had been openly indulged in. Only yesterday the Sun published two articles which, if justice were done, would entitle the editor to a much longer term in Sing Sing than ABRAHAM LINCOLN gave him in Fort Lafayette. In these articles he warned the 5,000 laborers employed on the Parks "and he had Judge HILTON'S authority for the warning—that in a few days they would be discharged, and their wives and little ones reduced to misery and starvation. He reminded them of the approach of Winter. He told them that this condition of things was the work of three men—the editor and publisher of the TIMES and Mr. JOHN FOLEY, who had it in their power by a word to make everything right. He told them where these men lived, giving the street and the number of the house, and then advised them to assemble "peaceably," in mass-meeting and——" Adept resolutions!" A more culpable and infamous incitation to mob violence was never penned. For there is no mistaking on whom the writer of the article spoke with authority—that it was not JOSEPH HOWARD, but Tammany Hall, that said to the taxpayers of New-York: "Dissolve your injunctions; ground your arms; let Mr. Green, or I shall fill your streets with a roaring mob that will sack your stores, and burn your houses." In the face of such a situation, and of such a menace, it behooves our New-York friends to bestir themselves; to drop their puerile squabbling, Murphy Republican with Greeley Republican, Roosevelt Democrat with O'Brien Democrat, and to decide at once what they are going to do with TWEED and SWEENY. There has been a day of grace, but it is now ended and closed, and something be done. Either let the injunction be wholly dissolved, or the enjoined officials turned out of their offices. So long as the present status continues, the credit and the peace of the City are in danger.

What Tweed, Hall and Hilton Have to Say About it—Sweeny not to be Found.

The announcement in the Sun that it was authorized by THOMAS C. FIELDS to say that the insurrection proclamation or "Warning," published in a proclamation sheet of the day before, owed its creation to Judge HILTON, started a Times reporter in search of that gentleman and other magnates of the Ring, not so much for information as to see if they would all tell the same story. Repeated visits to Judge HILTON'S office (Department of Parks) failing to disclose his whereabouts, the reporter sought the retreat of the "Boss," in the Department of Public Works. The stairs and corridors were thronged with diamonds, shiny hats, dirty hands, and dyed moustaches, and a cloud of cigar smoke hung like a protecting curtain over the political element that pushed and crowded in the hallways. A Committee from the Edward J. Shandley Association was in attendance, and on their departure our representative was ushered into the presence of the "Boss."

REPORTER—Tell me about the riot article in one of yesterday's papers. Do you know anything about it?

TWEED—I saw it last night; a friend called my attention to it. I don't like it.

REPORTER—Hadn't you heard of it until last night?

TWEED—I never saw it till last evening.

REPORTER—Who got it up, do you know?

TWEED—I know nothing whatever about it. It was ill advised, whoever did it.

REPORTER—One of today's papers says that HILTON did it. Is that so?

TWEED—I don't know; I don't know anything about it; I haven't seen HILTON for thirty days. I don't know where he is or what he is doing.

REPORTER—Do you know where I can find him?

TWEED—Yes; he will be at his office today at 2 o'clock.

REPORTER—Do you think this proclamation of "warning" calculated to incite a riot?

TWEED—Oh! no. The men will be paid, and they don't want any more. If they are paid there won't be any riot. The article was not one that I should have advised, but I don't think it will do any harm.

Another delegation of admirers was here announced, and the reporter departed in search of Mayor HALL and THOMAS C. FIELDS. Neither of these gentlemen had arrived at their offices, and the reporter pursued further search for Judge HILTON. Him he found at his office, and opened fire at once.

REPORTER—Did you write that "warning" to the proprietor and editor of the TIMES and Mr. FOLEY?

HILTON—No.

REPORTER—THOMAS C. FIELDS says you did.

HILTON—I never wrote it, and never saw it until it was published.

REPORTER—Who did write it?

HILTON—JOE HOWARD, I believe. I have just prepared a card for all the papers, and yours will get a copy; it denies any connection with that article, and will be signed by Mr. SWEENY, Mr. FIELDS and myself. There is not one word of truth in the editorial, in one of today's sheets, to the effect that I was the author or instigator of that article.

REPORTER—Have you seen FIELDS?

HILTON—Yes, I sent to his office for him.

REPORTER—Where can I find Mayor HALL?

HILTON—At his office, I presume; I don't know; I haven't seen him today.

REPORTER—Where is Mr. SWEENY?

HILTON—He is engaged now with a gentleman on important business, and can't be interrupted even by me. You can't see him.

REPORTER—What, in your judgment, will be the effect of that proclamation? Will it be apt to incite the laborers under your control to a riot?

HILTON—Oh, no, I think not. I have instructed the Superintendents of Bureaus to have no connection with any meetings of workmen—not to be identified with them in any way.

REPORTER—Have you instructed the Superintendents of Bureaus to put down any meeting of the workmen at the first intimation of an incendiary movement or motive?

HILTON—No. There will be nothing of the kind.

REPORTER—Provided the men are paid?

HILTON—I don't know how we shall pay them. Next Saturday the month's pay of the regular laborers will be due, and if there is no money for them there will be suffering, and I won't tell the consequence. Mr. SWEENY came to our help once, but I don't know whether we can depend on him again.

REPORTER—I would like to see Mr. SWEENY.

HILTON—Impossible. He is closeted on particular business. I have told you all he could. I never had anything to do with the "warning," and never was "indignantly denounced" by SWEENY or FIELDS. The newspapers may do that, but I am not the man to take an indignant denunciation from any one personally.

Our representative then proceeded to Mayor HALL'S office again, but the Mayor had not arrived. FIELDS' office was again visited, and the reporter was assured that Mr. HILTON to the contrary notwithstanding, Mr. FIELDS had not been in his office during the day, and his arrival at that late hour was extremely doubtful. From FIELDS' office to HALL'S again, and the Mayor was discovered, having just come in.

REPORTER—Did you read the riot article in yesterday's paper?

HALL—I can dispose of that in a word. SWEENY and HILTON have written a card, which will be sent out today, denying all knowledge of that affair, and your paper will get a copy. That will answer all the questions you can put me. Good day.

Straight from Mr. HALL to Mr. SWEENY'S office, but Mr. SWEENY had flown.

Who wrote the "Boyne Proclamation?" How is it that each of these men know nothing of the whereabouts or actions of the other? Mr. TWEED had not seen Judge HILTON for thirty days, and yet he states the exact time that HILTON is to be found in his office on a given day. Judge HILTON has seen Mr. FIELDS, and not Mayor HALL; yet Mr. FIELDS has not been where the Judge claimed to have found him, and Mayor HALL tells of an action of the Judge, within a half hour after it is done. Mr. HILTON has not the slightest idea where Mr. HALL can be found, and yet will not allow a reporter to see Mr. SWEENY because he is "closeted with a gentleman on important business." Mr. SWEENY leaves a few moments after, and Mayor HALL turns up, surprised at the unended issue of the "card of denial." The "warning" advised the workmen on the parks, unless they were paid, to "hold a mass-meeting at the Fifty-ninth-street entrance to the Park, and also send utterance to the gentlemen" &c. Mr. TWEED says if they are paid there will be no difficulty. Mr. HILTON does not see how they are to be paid while the Finance Department is locked up. These gentlemen tell the same story that the "warning" does, but often disagree and about it contradict and refute each other entirely.

The Attempt to Provoke a Riot.

To the Editor of the New-York Times.

I have sent the inclosed statements to the Sun, and I will be much obliged if you will publish them. Very truly yours,

HENRY HILTON.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 28, 1871.

To the Editor of the Sun:

In answer to your article in this day's paper, headed "Judge HILTON Inciting Insurrection," allow me to say, that the article referred to in the Sun was not written by my direction or with my knowledge, nor was I advised, did I know of it, or its intended publication, until I read it in that paper.

Further, that I have not at any time been indirectly or otherwise denounced for it by either Mr. SWEENY or Mr. FIELDS, or ever, to my knowledge, charged with writing it, or with being responsible for it by any one but yourself.

The Executive Committee of the Department of Parks met yesterday morning at Mr. SWEENY'S house, to prepare an affidavit on which to obtain a modification of Judge BARNARD'S injunction. There was certainly nothing there said to me by Mr. SWEENY or Mr. FIELDS in the slightest degree unpleasant.

We have not seen each other again during the day.

I have indeed called at Mr. FIELDS' today for the purpose of requesting him to join in Mr. SWEENY'S statement of facts, but up to this time have been unable to find him.

HENRY HILTON.

The Sun is in error in saying that Judge HILTON was indignantly, or in any manner, denounced by Mr. SWEENY or myself, at any time, on account of the article in the Sun of Wednesday referring to the Park laborers.

I have no knowledge of his having either written the article or directed its publication, nor have I ever so stated, my whole information respecting it consisting in reading it in the Sun.

Sept. 28, 1871. PETER B. SWEENY.

District-Attorney Garvin on Mob Violence.

With a view of ascertaining the position which the public prosecuting officer of the City and County of New-York assumed relative to the incendiary course adopted by a firebrand sheet of this City, supposed to circulate among the laboring classes, and edited by a forger, a representative of the Times called upon District-Attorney GARVIN yesterday afternoon. Judge GARVIN received the reporter very courteously, and, in reply to a question, stated that he was not in the habit of reading the journal in question, but his attention had been called to an article which was, to say the least, ill-advised. He said that there was no man in the community more opposed to an appeal to mob violence than himself, and if our City really is to be thrown into a state of anarchy and confusion, he would answer that the District-Attorney would be found at his post ready to restore order and peace. When asked whether the atrocious advice given the working-men, inciting them to riot and bloodshed, did not render the party or parties perpetrating such a deed criminally culpable, Judge GARVIN replied that as the matter now stood he did not see any law which could reach the case, or that anything tangible could be obtained, which would justify him in making a presentment to the Grand Jury. The District-Attorney evidently did not care to converse upon the subject of the infamous threat, and as was very apparent that he may that another climber had been made, which could do the Tammany Society, of which he is a member, no good. The vagabond accused of attempting to inflame the passions of the mob, preceded the TIMES representative in a private interview with Judge GARVIN.

Judge Milton's Sealed Bench Warrant.

ISAAC W. ENGLAND, the publisher of the New-York Sun, yesterday instructed WILLIAM C. HANNEY, Esq., that the statement in the Sun to the effect that the article in the Forger's paper attempting to incite a riot in this City was written by the direction of Judge HILTON if not by his hand," was told him in the presence of other gentlemen, by Hon. THOMAS C. FIELDS, one of the Park Commissioners. This fact, Mr. FIELDS informed Mr. ENGLAND, was committed by Judge HILTON, without the knowledge of either Mr. SWEENY or Mr. FIELDS. Mr. ENGLAND'S informant also stated that both Mr. SWEENY and himself indignantly denounced the action of the arrogant Park Commissioner as a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Commissioners of Parks, held at Mr. SWEENY'S house, No. 140 West Thirty-fourth-street, Wednesday afternoon. "At any rate," said a prominent and respectable Democrat, Tuesday afternoon, "whoever wrote the article is a matter of little importance beyond the satisfaction which the community derive in knowing who the individual is who could incite such an atrocious communication, but of one thing you can rest satisfied that the Forger was paid right roundly for the paltry performance of the infamous act, and whether the King denounce the deed or not, the proprietor of the paper has always been in collusion with them, has always "done their pursuits in the shade," and is ever ready to commit any act of villainy in return for the stolen gold of his masters."

More Wrecking the Sinking Ship.

The following letter tells its own story:

To William M. Tweed, Esq., Chairman Tammany Hall General Committee:

SIR: The frauds perpetrated in our Municipal Government by officials emanating from Tammany Hall should prevent every honest man in power his personal and political connection with a party by which dishonesty is sanctioned. I therefore resign as a member of the General Committee of Tammany Hall from the Twenty-first Ward.

Yours, &c., BERNARD COSTELLO.

Municipal Reform Association—The Times Commended.

A large number of the citizens and taxpayers of the Twenty-second Ward have organized an association under the name of the Municipal Reform Association of the Twenty-second Ward of the City of New-York, with the following citizens as officers: S. V. R. COOPER, President; Prof. WELLS and FRANCIS MARTIN, First and Second Vice-Presidents; W. REDELL, Treasurer, and WILLIAM MARTIN, Secretary.

The following resolution, commending the NEW-YORK TIMES, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the publishers of the NEW-YORK TIMES have the thanks of this Association for their unremitting efforts in exposing the corrupt practices of certain City officials.

A Call for a Meeting of Unpaid Workmen.

A meeting of men employed on the public works has been called to take place to-morrow evening, at the junction of Eighth-avenue and Fifty-ninth-street, the very place named in the incendiary article published in the infamous organ of HALL and SWEENY. The time for holding the meeting is also that named in that atrocious article—the evening of the day on which the pay of the laborers is due.

POLITICAL ACTION.

Action of the Germans of the Fourth Ward.

At a meeting of the German-American Association of the Fourth Ward, last night, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, The impending elections require harmonious and united action in order to attain the nomination for our State Senate and Assembly of none but able and honest men; and

Whereas, Our Association does not acknowledge any party considerations, but knows only a Tammany clique on one side and an Anti-Tammany organization on the other therefore be it

Resolved, That a committee of five members be appointed to act in concert with all other organizations of the Ward and this Assembly and Senatorial District for the common nomination of suitable candidates, said committee not to consist of any public office-holders, or any man who intend to run for any office in the next election; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be communicated to every one of the above mentioned Associations, with the invitation to appoint similar committees for immediate deliberation and concerted action.

Independent Club of the Fifth Ward.

The Tammany Ring revelations are producing positive results of a nature as healthy as they were unexpected. The intelligent, but politically-careless citizens, who hitherto have kept out of politics altogether have been awakened to a sense of their interests, and are organizing themselves all over the City into independent political clubs, the object being to, in future, take an active part in Municipal affairs, hold themselves aloof from party politics, and vote only for such men as they regard honest and capable, without regard to the candidates political affiliations. The Clubs are increasing in number rapidly, and are already established in nearly every Ward in the City. A meeting of the Fifth Ward organization was held last evening at M. Picot's Hall, No. 278 Canal-street. The room, which is a large one, was well filled, the gathering being a most cosmopolitan one, and including Irish, French, German, and citizens of African descent. The meeting was addressed by Counsellor KILLEEN, who in the course of his remarks dwelt at length on the terrible state of affairs lately brought to light in this City, and showed that it resulted from the people blindly following the lead of unscrupulous and avaricious men. The Tammany Ring, he said, had brought Democracy into disgrace, and cast a foul stain on the credit of this great City. He urged that in future his hearers would vote for honest men, regardless of party trammels, and that by so doing they would make New-York, instead of being a disgrace, an honor to Democracy and an ornament to the world. Remarks in the same strain were made by Mr. MERRIGAN, President of the Club, Mr. SPELLISSY and others.

The Projected German Mass-Meeting.

The German-American Association of the Fourth Ward, Mr. BURCKHARDT presiding, met at No. 5 Frankfort-street last evening, when arrangements were perfected for a mass-meeting of Germans, to co-operate with the Committee of Seventy in reference to the City frauds. The mass-meeting will be held under the auspices of the General Committee of the German American National Association formed by the late German Peace Jubilee Committee. The General Committee will meet within a few days, when the call for the mass-meeting will be issued and the time and place for the same be designated.

The Germans of the Seventh Senatorial District.

The German Executive Committee of the Seventh Senatorial District met last evening, Alderman SCHLEIMING presiding, and rejected the action of the German Democratic General Committee in arraying itself against Tammany, and indorsed the resolutions passed by the Committee on the subject.

Opposition to Tammany in the Twenty-first Ward.

Glass Hall, in Thirty-fourth-street, between Second and Third Avenues, was filled last evening by a mass-meeting, held under the auspices of the Twenty-first Ward Independent Voters Organization, DAVID M. KOEHLER, Esq., President, in the chair. The all-absorbing topic of the day in general, and the financial muddle at the City Hall in particular, was the special theme of the evening. Mr. ROBERT B. MOONEY, a fluent and powerful speaker, addressed the assembly at length, in the course of his remarks handing the gentlemen of the Ring without gloves. He dilated at length upon the corruption at the ballot-box, and the extreme favoritism of the rulers, in elevating only those to office whom they can control. Mr. MOONEY remarked that with all the machinery arranged by Tammany to elect men merely by counting them in on the night of the election, honest JAMES O'BRIEN could not be counted out in the (Seventh) Senatorial district, which he is bound to represent, in spite of all Rings and corrupt machinations. After several more pertinent remarks, Mr. MOONEY retired, amid great applause.

Mr. D. M. KOEHLER, the President of the Association, entertained the assembly with a stirring and well-timed speech. He was followed by Mr. LEVY BERNSTEIN, several other speakers, who had promised to be present, put in their appearance, and the meeting, not appearing, the assembly adjourned until Oct. 11.

Twenty-first Ward Democrats Denounce Tammany.

A meeting of the James O'Brien Association of the Twentieth Ward was held last evening at No. 418 Ninth-avenue, Wm. MCCLANAHAN presiding. Mr. THOMAS FORLY addressed the meeting, denouncing SWEENY and HALL and JOHN T. BRADLEY, the opponent of JAMES O'BRIEN. Mr. MCFOY also addressed the meeting, after which the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we bitterly condemn A. OAKEY HALL, PETER B. SWEENY and JOHN J. BRADLEY, and that we recognize in Ex-Sheriff O'BRIEN a true, good and worthy friend, impartial to all, and ever in the interests of the people; in consequence with which we will henceforth support him for Senator of the Seventh Senatorial District, and we cordially invite the hearty and cheerful assistance of the community at large in this our effort for REFORM.

Independent N. P. U. Association of the Fifth Ward—Tammany Denounced.

Last night a meeting of the above Association was held at Monsieur PICOT'S, No. 278 Canal-street. There was a large attendance present.

The President, Mr. P. MERRIGAN, made an eloquent speech, in which he strongly advocated the right of every man to think, judge and act for himself in all political matters. He denounced Tammany and its clique as sordid and selfish swindlers. During his address he was frequently applauded.

Messrs. KILLEEN and SPELLISSY also addressed the meeting in forcible terms, urging upon all the necessity of sustaining honest and upright men in the coming elections, no matter to what party they may be attached.

The following resolutions were proposed by Mr. HAREY:

Resolved, That as independent political thinkers and actors, we give our support only to those whom we may consider honest and trustworthy men, irrespective of party.

Resolved, That we call upon all citizens, of all nationalities, to aid us in our efforts to overthrow the corrupt oligarchy or despots of the Tammany Ring, who have so long, through the ward system, dominated the public, and contrived to keep the machinery of the public Treasury—a fabric that costs a number of unthinking citizens, clients of every description of trash, honor, or honesty.

Resolved, That this being the first independent political Association formed in the City, we earnestly call upon other Wards to follow our example.

Resolved, That we call upon all other independent clubs to co-operate with us; and, further, that a time and place be appointed for delegates from such clubs to meet and confer with respect to the course they are determined to take in the approaching election.

These resolutions having been carried the meeting adjourned.

It is understood that Hon. WM. F. HAVEMEYER will be President of the General Committee of the Democratic Reform Committee, and WM. E. DODGE and MAX GOEBEL Vice-Presidents. The Committee is composed of 300 prominent Democrats opposed to the corruptions of the Tammany Ring, and will meet and organize this evening at 8 P. M., at Apollo Hall.

Proposed Meeting of Anti-Tammany Democrats.

A meeting of the delegates from the Democratic Union Party in the Rochester Convention was held last evening at Masonic Hall, and adjourned until Saturday without taking any action. This was at the request of Mr. SAMUEL J. TILDEN, who proposed to bring about a fusion of all the anti-Tammany Democrats, and have them send delegates to the Convention to represent the whole number of Democrats opposed to Tammany Hall.

MORE ABOUT WATSON.

The Sting Resemblance but Not Death—How Mrs. Lee Manifests Her Widowhood.

The portrayal of the remarkable scenes which occurred at the death-bed of JAMES WATSON, the late County Auditor, as given in the Times of Tuesday last, it now appears was not in the least overdrawn. The statements then ascribed to rumor have since been fully confirmed as facts on excellent authority. It seems that when the news of WATSON'S accident first reached the Ring magnates they manifested the liveliest solicitude for him, and prayed with all the fear of guilty and selfish creatures that his life might be spared, so that their great Broadway swindle could be successfully consummated. As high as $20,000 was offered by the official corruptionists to the physician who would save his life, but instead of leaving him to the care of his family and to good nurses, as the surest means for his recovery, the Ring sent its minions to his home and took complete possession of it. This was considered a precautionary measure, to prevent unfriendly ears from listening to any secrets which the injured man might divulge in case he became conscious. He was watched with the most jealous care, the physician being in constant attendance on him. Had he been pronounced conscious at any time, it was the intention of the Ring to cause him to sign a will which had been drawn under its supervision, and to attach his signature to another document, conveying back to a new tool of the Ring the real estate which he had contracted for in his name on Broadway. Quiet, good professional nursing and first-class medical skill were the only things, however, that could save Watson, whose skull was fractured. The last he had, and it is very probable that with the other two also, he might have recovered, but the fright of the Ring deterred him from any questions, and he was not provided with nurses by the politicians who guarded him until three or four days had elapsed from the time of the accident. Quiet he could not have, for his house was constantly besieged by emissaries of the Ring from the time he was conveyed there until his death. Some stayed there constantly, and changed the place into a sort of club-house, where they ate, drank champagne, smoked, slept and amused themselves up to the very last moment that life remained in the body of the stricken man. Although the Ring hoped that he might survive, yet when it learned that there was no chance for him it did not show much grief, feeling that the secrets which he knew must perish with him. Among the persons who are now known to have kept by the last were County Clerk LOEW and Police Justice MCQUADE.

Anglo-German Alliance—Cecil Rhodes's Dream Realized.

From Our Own Correspondent.

London, Tuesday, Sept. 13, 1921.

After the experience of the last few weeks it is a relief to know that some of the drama of the international situation is played out, the last acts have been hastened by the Versailles Treaty, and the curtain has dropped on the tragedies of the Balkans. Neither Germany nor the Allies have been benefited by the diplomatic settlement, which, indeed, is satisfactory to nobody. The Versailles Treaty was a compromise between the Allies, and the Balkan settlement was a compromise between the Balkan States. Both have been accepted because they were the best that could be obtained in the circumstances, and both are unsatisfactory in many respects. Neither is likely to be permanent, and the Balkan settlement is already in jeopardy. The Versailles Treaty, however, has the merit of having been signed and ratified, and it is the basis of the present relations between Germany and the Allies. Germany has accepted it, and is now engaged in carrying out its terms, although she is trying to evade some of the most onerous of them. The Balkan settlement, on the other hand, is not yet signed, and it is not likely that it will be signed for some time to come. Meanwhile the Balkan States are in a state of unstable equilibrium, and the Balkan Peninsula is a powder magazine which may explode at any moment and involve all Europe in a general conflagration.

The Balkan settlement is the work of the Supreme Council of the Allies, which has been sitting in Paris since the Peace Conference began its labors. The Supreme Council is composed of the Premiers and Foreign Ministers of the Allied Powers, and it has been the real governing body of the Allies since the Peace Conference began its labors. The Supreme Council has had to deal with many questions of the greatest difficulty, and it has had to make many decisions which have aroused the keenest criticism and opposition. Its decisions have not always been unanimous, and it has frequently been obliged to give way to the views of one or other of the Allies. Its decisions have not always been wise, and it has frequently been obliged to reverse them. Its members have not always been statesmen, and they have frequently been obliged to confess their ignorance of the questions with which they have had to deal. Its proceedings have not always been dignified, and they have frequently been characterized by haste and confusion. Its methods have not always been businesslike, and they have frequently been obliged to alter them. Its history has not been a happy one, and it has frequently been the object of the most violent criticism and opposition. Nevertheless, it has done much good work, and it has settled many questions which would have caused trouble if they had been left unsettled. It has made mistakes, but it has corrected them when they have been pointed out to it. It has been obliged to give way to the views of the Allies, but it has generally done so when it was convinced that they were right. It has been the object of much abuse, but it has generally deserved it. It has been the object of much praise, but it has generally deserved it. On the whole, it has done its work well, and it has done it as well as could be expected under the circumstances. It has not been a success, but it has not been a failure. It has been a necessary evil, but it has been a necessary evil. It has been the best means of settling the questions which have arisen out of the war that could be devised, and it has settled them in the best way that could be devised. It has not settled them finally, but it has settled them provisionally, and it has settled them as well as they could be settled at present. It has not settled them satisfactorily, but it has settled them as satisfactorily as they could be settled under the circumstances. It has not settled them permanently, but it has settled them for the time being. It has not settled them for all time, but it has settled them for the present. It has not settled them for ever, but it has settled them for the next few years. It has not settled them for the next few years, but it has settled them for the next few months. THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Address by Bishop Potter—Report of Committee on Canons.

GENERAL CONVENTION.

The Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of New-York, reconvened at the Synod rooms yesterday morning in the Church of St. James. A full service was performed, and the Holy Communion was administered, after which the Convocation proceeded to the election of a Bishop to succeed the late Bishop Wainwright. The ballots were then taken, and the Rev. Dr. Potter, of Schenectady, elected on the morning ballot, and pronounced his pastoral charge. He said:

I feel and understand, I believe well, but shall I begin to tremble? On the contrary, in reviewing the history of this diocese I see much that is of the most sensitive character, much that we must be grateful for. There is unquestionably a larger comprehension of the Christian spirit; there is an increase in pecuniary resources, and a higher development in intellectual activity. But yet I censure narrow thinking of the mighty significance of the issues pending over the whole civilized world. To attempt to measure what is here would be idle, but every Christian believes that all cannot end well finally for the glory of God.

Standing as our Church does, alone between two great extremes, it is natural that there should be great reluctance to employ any of those directive which are in use among bodies whose inability we know and whose errors we deplore. Even an examination of these deep errors, this confidence, sometimes found to be a fear that even with those things apparently good, there is an underlying taint of evil. The Church is not unwilling to receive, directly or indirectly, even here those in a limb to become apparently condemnation. If we should eschew all those elements and appliances which in the possible judgment have become associated with grievous ills, we should be depriving ourselves of potent qualities which are not only of the greatest service, but which keep the very integrity of doctrine and the example of the early pure and undivided Church.

To imagine that every germ of Christian truth must have departed is utterly wrong. Overlook as it is with much that is erroneous, seven good remains, otherwise it would long since have ceased to exist. That it is seen, that it is grasped, and that it is expressing in a sense may be accepted as demonstrating how much that is excellent survives, and how many noble men are devoted to its interests. It is character not conceivable that in freeing ourselves from great dates and pernicious practices we may have lost some things that were good and true? Against innovation for the sake of mere innovation I would solemnly protest. It is most irrational. If there are any pastors who introduce the strange features of some foreign system in a cautious belief in the good of mere imitation, I must consider such action to be the sure of a work judgment not to be found.

From these general remarks I now come to one specific topic, which I feel I must make your present attention. It is the work of Christian women in the Church. More than one church has owed its very existence to the graceful works and the indomitable eloquence of these ladies. There cannot be a more beautiful, more blessed picture than a church, pastor, people, and a pastor a large family in the power of Christian love. I have seen these things, and they have ever received my warm admiration and sympathy. But it must not be forgotten that these things are the works of talented women, fitted in their nature from the necessity of attending to the demands of domestic and social life. Charming as are these efforts, beautiful as they are, we can never find a substitute for their presence, yet there is a void which they do not fill. It must be an infinite advantage to the Church to have everywhere within her borders such an image of unselfish sanctity. The presence of such a class in the midst of us, visibly separated from the common things of earth and wholly given up to the service of God, is a most applied tion of our Lord's, while their sustained support, unless our bosoms are of steel, must tend to cause us better and less selfish. Let me not be misunderstood to say, or to think, that there will be no irregularities or faults among these sisterhoods. I know well that in all change of humanity there must ever be some imperfection. Both in the system and in its workings. There will be here, as elsewhere, such imperfection, but the constant sight of sacred things, the constant influence of a religious life and acts of charity, must tend to make these few in number and trifling in character. As to the form and internal government of these sisterhoods, I have views which will regulate them. I shall have little to say. I have, indeed, thought much upon the subject, and have given my earnest attention to those incorporated sisterhoods, which have slowly and with great difficulty made their way among us. The Convocation of the Holy Communion afterward connected with St. Luke's Hospital, those of the Advent and Good Shepherd, are all different in their internal system and arrangements.

The Bishop enlarged upon the topic of charitable education afforded by the sisterhoods at considerable length. Dr. Haigar said that as the Bishop desired the resolution in the sense of the word relative to his address, he would not move one, but he would make a motion that a committee be appointed to consider the address and the subject of the incorporated sisterhoods. He felt that it was the religious duty of the Convention to consider the time and energy by the devotion to great and noble objects. The motion was carried, and a committee of Drs. Dix, Gallaudet and Haigar, and Messrs. F. S. Warden, S. Nash, and L. M. Wells, was appointed.

The Bishop announced the expected visit of Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Litchfield, who had been so long a missionary in New-Zealand, and Very Reverend the Dean of Chester, who would arrive in this country shortly after the meeting of the General Convention in Baltimore. He invited the Convention to present them on their arrival with an expression of cordial welcome on the part of the Bishop, the clergy, and the laity of the diocese. A motion was accordingly presented by Dr. Forbes that a committee of three be appointed to carry into effect the above resolution, which was adopted. The following gentlemen compose the Committee: Drs. Wheaton, Dix, and Haigar, Messrs. Montgomery, Dix, Morgan, and Messrs. Fred. De Peyster, William Kent, and G. H. Ogden.

The Bishop then announced the arrivals of the Bishops of Missouri and Mississippi, who received the ordinary greeting. Both were uttered and the session then adjourned.

The Convention then went into ballot for the election of delegates and members of the previous election having been promptly called to gathering, resembling a secular caucus. While those ballots were being counted by the inspectors the routine of business was suspended. Dr. Hemenway moved that the ballot for the office of Trustee of the Episcopal Fund be dispensed with and the existing members reappointed for the ensuing year. This was agreed to without discussion.

The report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund was then read by the Secretary and adopted. Dr. Peters offered a resolution that the Treasurer of this fund be ordered to pay to the Bishop $1,000, in accordance of an application previously made. This was also adopted without discussion.

The report of the Standing Committee on the General Theological Seminary was next read by Dr. Dix, the Chairman. It embodied a statement of the Board of Lost Island with regard to their connection with the bequest of Miss LODLOW's legacy, and recommended the adoption of the Convention of a series of resolutions, of which the most important was as follows:

Resolved, That from the gross amount of the contribution reported as having been made in the Diocese of New-York for the benefit of the Theological Seminary, a deduction of $1,000 be made and credited to the Diocese of Long Island, for the purpose of representation in the General Convention.

After very considerable discussion this was agreed to.

The report of the Missionary Committee was read by Dr. Sweeney, by which it appeared that it had done great service to Christianity, and had a balance of $200 00 to its credit. This was adopted without dissent.

The report on the salary of the Bishop offered a resolution that an apportionment be made in each parish for sufficient to eke out the salary. This was agreed to.

The Committee on Canons and on City Missions presented their reports, which were read and approved.

Dr. HEMENHOOT now announced that the result of the elections would be made known. It was as follows:

Missionary Committee—Rev. A. B. Beach, Rev. Jas. Starr Clark, Rev. Chas. Babcock, Rev. Dr. Montgomery, Rev. R. W. Swope.

Lay—Messrs. Geo. C. Collins, James, Fort, Hamilton Bruce, Wm. M. Kingsland, Wm. H. Aspinwall.

Standing Committee—Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, Rev. Dr. Wm. E. Eigenbrodt, Rev. Dr. Wm. F. Morgan, Rev. Isaac D. Tuttle.

Lay—Messrs. Stephen P. Nash, Floyd Smith, Henry W. Wells, Henry Drake.

Delegates to the Federal Council—Dr. Haigat, Dr. Forbes, Dr. Houghton, Dr. Draper, Dr. Hollingsworth, Dr. Seymour, Dr. J. S. Clark.

Lay—Hon. Hamilton Fish, Messrs. Floyd W. Wells, Stephen P. Nash, Henry Drake, Robert T. Parrott; Gen. George W. Morrell; Messrs. Andrew H. Douglass, Ed. P. DeLancey.

After the elections had been disposed of the reading of the reports was resumed. Dr. DIX read the report of the Committee on the demand of the Lost Island and North New-York dioceses, for a division of the Diocese of the New-York diocese. The diocese of Long Island, which was more especially considered by the Committee, demanded a sum of $58,972 16 as their maximum, and $41,000 as their minimum. The report, when it was of extreme length, discussed their claims from both legal and equitable positions, and came to the conclusion that from both stand-points their pretensions were baseless. It also reached the conclusion that in no case could the Episcopal fund be divided. This report was adopted, and immediately afterward a communication on the subject arrived from Albany, which was read by the Secretary. Not being authenticated in a proper manner, it was not placed on the minutes, but a motion was offered and adopted that, in reply, copies of the reports just accepted should be sent to both dioceses. After his motion a lively discussion sprang up upon the subject, which was supposed settled, and when some one moved, with words that although one Dakin as the attorney of record, yet the defendant is the real attorney, and had received the money when title to the property was passed; that as multiplied defendants in the action he, the only, was the only real examinator were ten in number, and that such excessive number of parties were included in order to accumulate costs.

The argument was to have taken place today, but at the request of defendant's has been deferred to the 24th of next month.

Democratic Action of the Republicans of Syracuse.

A Platform Adopted and a Strong Ticket Nominated.

The Democracy of Onondaga held a delegated convention in the Court-House in Syracuse yesterday afternoon, which was largely attended by delegates from all parts of the county. The convention was called to order by Mr. Alonzo Hancock, Chairman of the County Committee, who read the call for the convention. Mr. Hancock then nominated Mr. Charles Andrews for temporary Chairman, and he was elected by acclamation. Mr. Andrews, on taking the chair, addressed the convention briefly, thanking them for the honor conferred upon him. REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

Although the attendance at the Exchange yesterday was larger the business transacted was unimportant in its character, no considerable sales being effected. The proposed auction sale, under the direction of A. J. BLEECKER, Son & Co., attracted the greater share of attention, at which an extensive line of property located at Nyack, Rockland County, was offered, embracing two plots of ground fronting on the Hudson River, one of four acres and the other of five, with cottages thereon, together with some 150 building lots, all forming a portion of the Quarry Hill estate. The first plot was offered at an upset price of $10,000, but no advance bid being received, it was withdrawn, and the remainder of the realty shared the same fate. E. H. LUDLOW & Co. conducted a sale in bankruptcy, under the direction of RICHARD WARREN, Esq., assignee, at which the assets of HYMAN A. YOSEMIA were disposed of, consisting of mining stocks, notes, &c., and of two lots, with a house thereon, situate at Elizabethport, N. J. The real estate was sold subject to a mortgage of $2,500, and brought $95. A. H. NICOLAY also conducted a sale of a number of horses, the property of individual fields, title and interest in certain lands in the town of Carbondale, Luzerne County, Penn., was sold for a nominal sum. This fragmentary action closed the business of the day. In reference to the sales of suburban real estate, held at Richmond Hill, Long Island, by JOHNSON & MILLER, and at Newtown, L. I., by A. D. MELLICK, Jr., & Bro., the result will be given in detail to-morrow. For to-day, at the Exchange, legal sales of City property are ordered by JAMES M. MILLER, and by A. D. MELLICK, Jr., & Bro., parties desirous in regard to which have been duly published.

FINANCIAL.

First Mortgage, Convertible, 7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds

OF THE
PEORIA & ROCK ISLAND RAILWAY
OF ILLINOIS.

First Mortgage Bonds - - - $1,500,000
Capital Stock - - - - - - - 2,000,000

This is a COMPLETED Road 91 miles in length, connecting the important Cities of Peoria on the Illinois River, and Rock Island, Moline and Davenport, on the Mississippi, Davenport, on the opposite bank of the River, is connected by a railway bridge. The last rail of this road was laid July 7, 1871, and the line is now open and being operated with a success exceeding all anticipation. In order to place upon the road the large equipment necessary for the business offered, and to construct depots, the elegant engine-house, machine shops, &c., equal to any of the best old roads in the country, as is now required of this the Company's road, through the undersigned, $1,000,000 convertible first mortgage gold bonds, which cover the entire property of the Company, and is less than $17,000 per mile. PRESENT PRICE, 90, AND ACCRUED INTEREST IN CURRENCY. Principal and interest payable in coin at New-York or London, free of tax. Coupons payable February and Aug. 1.

This road, opened for the immense local as well as through traffic, now offered, will prove one of the most profitable in the West, traversing as it does a section of country unsurpassed in fertility of soil and agricultural resources, already thickly populated and in a high state of cultivation. This is self-evident from the fact that every section of the road passes through cultivated fields and many flourishing towns and villages, with a large city and navigable river at each end. Railroads in the West have been heretofore constructed through unsettled and uncultivated regions of the country, consequently have had but little local traffic to depend upon for several years after construction. But the Peoria and Rock Island Railway is a first-class COMPLETED road, with NO PARALLEL or COMPETING LINE, and RUNS THROUGH ONE OF THE RICHEST AGRICULTURAL, MANUFACTURING AND MOST POPULOUS DISTRICTS IN THE WEST. Thus it is certain that the local business is already more than enough to sustain the road, while the through traffic is unlimited, as its connections are numerous, which can be seen by a glance at the map.

This road is a grand central link, to which many of the principal lines centralize and diverge to all parts of the continent.

We invite the attention of investors to this loan. Being familiar with the wealth and resources of the country along the line of this railway and A MEMBER OF OUR FIRM HAVING MADE A CAREFUL EXAMINATION OF THE ROAD AND ITS PROPERTY, WE CAN WITH THE UTMOST CONFIDENCE RECOMMEND THE BONDS AS A PRIME SECURITY, reliable and safe in every particular.

All marketable securities received in exchange at full rates, and bonds delivered to all parts of the country, free of express charges.

Maps, circulars, &c., with full particulars relating to this road, furnished on application by the undersigned, Financial Agents of the Company.

STIFLING FREE SPEECH

A Meeting of Citizens Broken up by Macregor's Men.

Disgraceful Conduct of Members of the Building Department—Damaging Affidavits that were to Have Been Presented.

A meeting of the citizens [illegible] of this City was held at Tammany Hall, corner of Third-avenue and Seventeenth-street, last evening, and was well attended. Mr. TOERVEN, the President of the Association for Property-owners' Assistance, called the meeting to order, and stated the object to be the obtaining redress from the depredations of members of the Building Department. He warned those who were present at the meeting not to commit any disturbance. He said the meeting was intended by citizens to report of the disgraceful actions of the Building Department.

He observed that when we look around this City we find that it is owing only to ourselves and the fine street cleaning department that we retain all the wealth of property. [illegible] We have a history of the proceedings, but time would not permit.

The Secretary, JOHN W. MARSHALL, explained what had been done thus far, which has already been printed in the TIMES. During the reading of the report a man in the rear portion of the room created a disturbance, but he was promptly quelled by Capt. CAMERON, also with a force of Police, was in attendance.

The Chairman was about to read several affidavits from persons who had paid money by the Superintendent of Buildings in the way of bribes.

Previous to the reading of the affidavits a resolution was offered by ROBERT MCCAFFERTY to the effect that it was but just that Mr. MACGREGOR should have an opportunity of explaining the matters at issue before the charges were presented or before legal prosecutions were taken; also, that it be ascertained whether the Superintendent would co-operate in any amendments to the law. The resolution suggested that a committee of twenty be appointed to attend to this duty.

The Chairman stated that he could not entertain the resolution at the present time. This declaration elicited considerable disturbance.

TERENCE FARLEY, who was present, said that if the Chairman was the whole meeting he would insist upon his rights. He appealed from the decision of the Chair.

MICHAEL A. SALMON, in a few remarks, insisted upon the question on the resolution being put.

The Secretary said that the meeting was packed with employes of the Building Department for the purpose of breaking up the Association.

MATHEW BYRNES, a carpenter, representing himself as a builder, said that he had known Mr. MACGREGOR as an honest, upright man and a first-class mechanic. Other "builders" also spoke, and insisted that the resolution should be put.

Mr. MCCOOLE said that he seconded the resolution on the ground that if MACGREGOR had been guilty of malfeasance in office he should remove him, but do it in a fair and proper manner.

The Chairman insisted upon declaring the resolution out of order, and said he would not entertain it.

An appeal was taken from this decision and resulted in a majority by noes against the Chair, but Mr. TOERVEN stated that he saw those voting who were not members of the Association, therefore he declared the decision of the Chair to be sustained.

Mr. CONNOLLY, a member of the painters, declared that all those [illegible] of the meeting were not honest. He had known MACGREGOR for many years and knew him to be honest. He concluded by moving that the Chairman be deposed from the position, and nominated LEANDER BUCK, who came forward and took the chair. Amid the uproar which ensued the officers of the meeting were driven from the room and the assemblage was broken up.

THE AFFIDAVITS.

The following are the receipts and affidavits which were to have been read at the meeting:

Received from MR. SIMON STANLEY SIBE, in full for drawing a plan for the erection of a dwelling building on First-avenue, between Fifty-second and Fifty-third streets, to be erected. R. MURRAY.

He took the money, and I supposed it was all right. I went to see him the following day, fully supposed without [illegible] to my surprise, was told by Mr. MACGREGOR that I could not get a permit. THE COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

Fourth Day at Baltimore—Action of Delaware, Maryland and the West Virginia Canal.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 28.—In the National Commercial Convention this morning, [illegible] Governor, President of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railway Company, took a seat as a delegate. Mr. HOWARD, of Maryland, addressed the Convention in favor of a memorial to Congress to the increasing power of the great railroad corporations of the country, their abolition of all other lines of road, the necessity of restricting their powers, and the establishment of a national [illegible] of fares and freights, which was referred to the Committee on Railroads. Ex-Gov. SEABROOK, of Missouri, submitted the report of the Committee on Railroads, which was received. The following resolutions were adopted. That this Convention recommend to railroad companies throughout the United States to [illegible] transportation companies to so reduce local rates of freight and passage as to give them a reasonable profit on the capital employed; that a spirit should exist between the different States in granting reciprocal rights of way across their territory to all railroads, and that an air-line railroad from Cincinnati to Boston, and that an air-line railroad from the Central States to the seaboard, especially to that of the South, this Convention distinctly avow its purpose to indorse the authority under which the air-line railroad should be constructed, and recommend to the next Convention to fully consider the feasibility and desirability of a railroad steamship line from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and lying within the territorial limits of the United States, and will [illegible] at the earliest practicable moment. Resolutions were also adopted recommending the establishment of a Bureau of Statistics, and [illegible] Mr. BRADFORD also submitted the report of the Committee on the subject of narrow-gauge railroads, as follows:

This class of railroads has [illegible] of late years in this country, and so far no one of three feet on the gauge has been fully established, from which we are able to get substantial facts upon which to base estimates as to the economy of the diminished value. In this, as in all new subjects, promising great advantages as a decrease of cost, with speed, are likely to be the inventors are to be disappointed. Enough, however, is known from the reports, supposed to be reliable, of narrow-gauge roads in Wales, Switzerland and other countries to justify your Committee in recommending that the dimensions of the standard gauge roads being increased as from a half to two-thirds of the cost of the usual grades, curves, and accommodating degree of curves, and the penalty diminished cost of operating, point to such a class of roads as offering at least to many sections of our country great economies in their construction, [illegible] may not become, they may soon be substantial long lines of roads, or the transportation of all kinds and classes of freight, yet the convenience of local traffic and the bringing into railroad communication [illegible] country [illegible] physical geography of the same would make [illegible] construction of wide-gauge roads impracticable, either from the great cost or [illegible] involved. That this Convention recommend to Congress to [illegible] a new era in the rapid progress of development of this nature. The reports of such roads as your Committee have seen, all give results in construction of about [illegible] per mile, including equipment. The cost of operation [illegible] less than the wide gauge, and the rate of speed in travel equal to that of other roads in the country. Several roads are now being built, while many are projected and likely to be constructed in the coming year. A road of this class is under construction from Denver City to El Paso, one from Leavenworth to Denver, on the Pacific Railroad, and one from Toledo to Saint Louis, all of several other of less importance and minor importance. The Committee, therefore, recommend, in view of the great importance of this subject and the lack of reliable information, the appointment by this Convention of a special committee of five to report to the next Convention.

(Signed,) C. R. GUTHRIE, of New-Jersey.
J. H. KIMBALL, of Maine,
WM. JOHNSTON, of North Carolina.

The foregoing report of the Sub-committee was presented to the Convention as the report of the full Committee on Railroads. Mr. BRADFORD spoke at length on the report.

Mr. KIRK, of Philadelphia, moved to strike out the resolution submitted in the report in reference to local and through rates of freight and offered as a substitute

That the combination by railroads against local and in favor of through traffic and preferences is a great public evil from which the entire commercial, agricultural and manufacturing interests of the continent suffer, and providing for the appointment of a special committee of five members of this Convention to confer and remonstrate with railroad companies, collect information, and report at the next Convention.

Mr. KIRK advocated his substitute at some length.

The order of business was suspended to allow a resolution to be offered by Judge HAMMOND, of Georgia, on the subject of education, to the effect
